

General M'Arthur to Wed is Report

WASHINGTON—The chief War Department order granting permission to Brigadier-General Douglas MacArthur, Superintendent of the Military Academy at West Point, to go aboard for two months has set in motion the rumor of a possible honeymoon trip. Report has it that the engagement of General MacArthur and Mrs. Louis Cromwell Brooks will be announced shortly. Mrs. Brooks is the only daughter of Mrs. E. T. Statesbury, of Philadelphia, by her first husband, the late Oliver Cromwell, of New England and Washington. She divorced Walter Brooks, of Baltimore, in France in 1919. She is a noted beauty. General MacArthur had a distinguished career in France, where he was known as a progressive commander, both in methods and achievements.

Liner is Frosted Like Phantom Ship

When the steamship Lorraine arrived in New York she looked like she had made a trip in Polar seas. From bow to stern the liner was covered with ice, dusted with a coating of snow that glistened like crystals. The photo shows part of the ice-coated ship and also the Countess de la Rochette.

Pepper Succeeds Penrose in Senate

Stillman May Seek Divorce in Paris

It is rumored in New York that James A. Stillman and Mrs. Florence Leeds have left this country and are en route to Paris. According to reports the banker may seek a rapid fire divorce in French courts from his wife, Mrs. Anne U. Stillman.

Near Death From Poisoning

Mrs. Audrey Creighton Ryan, member of a prominent Los Angeles family, and a world-famous violinist, who is near death in Paris as the result of having swallowed three poison tablets.

British Beauty to Wed Peer's Son

Miss Audrey James, British beauty and daughter of Mrs. Brinton formerly Mrs. William James, who was a social leader during the later days of King Edward's reign, is to marry Captain Dudley Coats, winner of the Military Cross in the recent World War. Captain Coats a member of the Scots Guards is the son of Sir Stuart Coats, M. P.

Cripple Transport Arrives Safely in Port

The United States Army Transport Cook, which had been fighting slowly to make port since it sprang several leaks far out at sea five days before its arrival, docked slowly at her pier in Brooklyn, N. Y. The rail was lined with cheering doughboys from Coblenz who had been members of the American forces in Germany. Many of them are bringing back French or German wives. Nearly 1,000 soldiers were on board. The above photograph of the Cook was made upon her arrival in New York. Below, Captain Frank Reppa of the Cook, who kept that boat going and brought her into port under her own power. He was given a hearty cheer by the men aboard when they were again on terra firma.

First Pictures of Rioting in Cairo

A scene at the railway station at Cairo, after the rioters had set fire to the station and torn up the tracks. British troops had to defend the Egyptian police and firemen, who worked hard against the mob. The rioting, it is said, was caused by Lord Allenby's order expelling Zaghlul Pasha from Cairo.

VETERANS MAKE UP NEW FRENCH CABINET

Several of the members of Poincare's new Cabinet have been identified with previous ministries, some of them with that of Aristide Briand which is now being displaced. Most conspicuous among these is Louis Barthou, who was Minister of War under Briand, although one of the ex-Premier's bitterest political enemies. In the new Cabinet Barthou becomes Minister of Justice and represents Alsace-Lorraine. He was Premier in 1913, when Poincare, as President, forced through the three year compulsory military service law. Minister of Colonies Albert Sarraut held the same post in the Briand Cabinet and is now head of the French delegation at the Armament Conference in Washington, Yves Letroquer, by accepting the Ministry of Public Works, fills that post for the third successive time, having served both under Georges Leygues and Briand. Andre Maginot is the War and Pensions head.

Miss Grace Abbott

Mrs. Mary A. Lindsley